GENERAL NEWS.

Hugh A. Jamieson, a Pennsylvania millionaire, who has heavy interests in Oregon lumber and mines, is dead at Warren, Pa.

The maximum punishment given any of the rioters guilty of the Kishineff massacre in May, 1902, was 170 days imprisonment.

Ex-President Sam. of Hayti, has been sentenced to life imprisonment for issuing fraudulent government bonds, with the proceeds of which he undertook to leave the country.

Only 10 states cast more votes for Swallow, the prohibition candidate for president, than did Kentucky. The day after the official count was made Colonel Watterson started for Europe.

L. K. Nesbit, a Chicago banker, a hopeless cripple and sufferer, went into an undertaker's establishment, selected and paid for a casket and then pulling a pistol shot himself and fell dead beside it.

At Lander, Yeo, Sergeant Wilhite, of the 11th U. S. Infantry, and Private Stanfield, of the same company, quarreled and then fought for 20 minutes, Stanfield being badly beaten. Stanfield then secured a gun and shot Wilhite three times. Wilhite will die.

Louis Chapkowsky, of New York City, labored for five years to get his brother Abraham out of an insane asylum on the grounds that he was not really insane, and even if it should be proven that he was, he was harmless. He succeeded, and Abraham shot Louis, wounding him until he will die.

Elmer Stager, a very poor man, was fined $10 for drunkenness on Christmas day, in New York City. On learning his circumstances and that Stager had five children at home, the judge remitted the fine conditioned upon Stager spending the entire amount for Christmas presents for the children.

NORTHWEST NEWS.

Astoria fishermen have decided to ask for an amendment to the present fish laws, permitting them to fish on Sundays.

During the year 1904, there have been 93 violent deaths in the city of Seattle, most of them suicides and murders.

Roseburg citizens have called a mass meeting to consider amendments to the city charter permitting municipal ownership of the water system.

The government has issued orders for the purchase of 1000 head of cavalry horses, to be bought on the Pacific coast, for use in the Philippines. The order must be filled by July 1.

Oregon capitalists, principally from Baker county, are said to have formed a company to buy the Weiser smelter. The smelter has a capacity of 100 tons per day, and will be used to smelt seven Devils ore, if purchased.

John Rinehart, station agent of the Northern Pacific at Frances, in Franklin county, was found dead in bed Wednesday morning. He had been invited out to dinner and not making his appearance, his friends hunted him and found him as if asleep, in his bed. His family was absent from home.

Native Alaskans are barred from Indian schools in the United States, because they are classed on the census as "natives" and not as Indians, and until their true status can be decided by congress and the Indian commissioner, they must attend only the Alaskan schools established for them. Several have been denied admission to Chemawa recently.

There are but very few desirable vacant lots left in the residence portion of Pendleton. These we have just listed and the prices are very reasonable.

We have a new list of residences for sale. Come and see us, and look over our list.

We have anything that you want in country property.

DEAD LINE DRAWN

GRANT COUNTY STOCKMEN GIVE FAIR WARNING.

Bounds of the Restricted Range Area on Which Foreign Sheep Will Not Be Allowed to Trespass, Are Described and Warning Notice Signed by 50 Reputable Citizens—Umatilla, Morrow, Wheeler and Crook County Sheepmen Are Warned to Stay Out of the Described Territory.

The spring campaign of the 1905 range war promises to open with renewed vigor as soon as the tender shoots of the much-sought bunchgrass show themselves above the ground, says the Baker City Herald. Meetings have been held at various places in Grant county and one of the leading papers last week contained the following notice signed by about 50 well known men of that section:

Notice to Sheepmen.

We, the undersigned, request that all sheep be kept out of the district bounded as follows: Commencing at the mouth of Big creek, thence up the creek to the summit of Greenhorn mountains; thence along the summit of the Greenhorn mountains to the head of Granite Boulder creek; thence down Granite Boulder creek to the middle fork of the John Day river; thence across the middle fork of the John Day river to the rocks known as the "Buttes"; thence down Lick creek and up Whisky creek to Whisky flat; thence down Hawkins creek to the middle fork of the John Day river; thence down the John Day river to the mouth of Big creek.

The stockmen of that section most particularly object to the encroachment of the sheepmen from Umatilla, Crook, Wheeler and other Central Oregon counties, where range is short. The past summer witnessed most violent demonstrations against the sheep-owners.

Thousands of sheep were either shot or driven over bluffs and pertinent warnings sent to the owners to move on. The varied interests of Grant county have evidently taken time by the forelock in an effort to preserve the already crowded range of that section.

AGAINST RANGE WARS.

Interior Paper Discusses at Length the Stock Situation.

The Primeville Review, in speaking of the range wars of the interior of Oregon, says:

The Review has always maintained, and will continue to do so, that sheep are just as necessary to Central Oregon as are cattle, no matter how often individual interests may conflict. It is also painfully aware of the fact that nothing that it or any other newspaper can say will have the slightest effect as a deterrent.

But for a newspaper that tries to be such ignoring the wanton destruction of property that has taken place the past few years in Central Oregon, is equivalent to aiding and abetting lynch law and advising a return to medieval anarchy.

The cattle men are simply sharpening the steel for the cutting of their own wind-pipes by these predatory acts. Already the plan of leasing government lands is being favored, and it requires no very long head to see that if the adoption of this plan will force the small sheepman out of business, there is the no less absolute certainty that the small cattle man will share a like fate. Then who will be the gainer?

There are two sides to this, as in every other question; and the Review realizes only too well that it is unable to suggest a remedy. Having friends among both industries and enemies in neither, realizing that each has the right to live and prosper, and that each are necessary to the welfare of the state, the district and the county, the Review can only advise that recourse to the torch and shooting-iron and club be abandoned for the more peaceable one of arbitration.

But the idea of a man or a band of men self-constituted into judge and jury to further selfish interests will never be countenanced in the columns of this paper. Anarchy never reigns but a short time, no matter where it is attempted.

CLOSING OUT SALE.

Rohrman's Big Bargains in Chinaware, Crockery, Glassware Attracting Money-Saving People.

C. Rohrman's closing out sale of chinaware, glassware, crockery, etc., is attracting a large crowd of purchasers who are making big savings in the goods as the prices are cut way down in order to make the goods move. In some lines less than actual cost is being asked. Saturday as an extra inducement, every child making a purchase in the chinaware department, will be presented with a Japanese night lamp free. It will pay all citizens to visit the sale and investigate the bargains offered.

Big Ghosts on Trial.

Stephen A. Douglas Pater, Horace Greeley McKinley and Daniel Webster Tarpley having been convicted of fraud in securing government lands in Oregon. The grand jury is now dealing with Franklin Pierce Mays and Thaddeus Stevens Potter in an endeavor to see if they were in the mix-up. Such a galaxy of distinguished names is seldom gathered together especially in criminal proceedings. The combination sounds like the roster of a modern Lime Kiln club.—Exchange.

It is reported that the Northern Cheyenne Indians are in a destitute condition, owing to the fact that rations have been cut off by the government.

OREGON'S PURE FOOD.

State Commissioner Bailey Passes a High Compliment to the Eastern Oregon Districts.

State Pure Food Commissioner J. W. Bailey, who is now on a tour of the Eastern Oregon counties, while in Baker City yesterday, said to a Baker City paper, regarding the food products of the Eastern Oregon district:

"The stocks of goods carried in Eastern Oregon are on the average far superior to those of any other section of the state. I have not found here recently any under weight butter, or any misrepresented Eastern butter, any acid vinegar, colored catsup or poisoned jellies.

"Oregon is making more of its own butter and cider now than ever before in its history, and our food products are purer and freer from adulteration than they have been in years. I am glad to see creameries starting up in Baker county and predict there will be more of them."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

"Excuse me," replied the sagacious fowl. "Just now I am laying off."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

IT IS FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
